PROFILE

I am a Junior Web Developer skilled in JavaScript, React.js, Next.js, Node.js, Express, and MySQL. Passionate about building responsive and user-friendly applications, I thrive in problem-solving and collaboration. With a background in marketing and operations, I can bring strong communication and adaptability to tech projects. Always eager to learn, I aim to create efficient and scalable solutions.

EXPERIMENTAL PROJECTS

Analytical Dashboard (Real World Company Project)

Contributed Frontend Design for graphs and maintained backend data together with a coworker as a team member.
